BLUE HEAVEN

Where better to get into the springtime spirit than the sunny Côte d'Azur? We head to Villa Noailles in Hyères to discover looks that will make the transition easy, breezy and colourful.

On location: Villa Noailles

Sitting above the city of Hyères on the French Riviera, Villa Noailles – where these pictures were taken – was built as a summer residence for art patron Charles & Marie-Laure de Noailles in 1924 by architect Robert Mallet Stevens. With a garden landscaped by cubist designer Gabriel Guevrekian, its original furnishings came from the likes of Eileen Gray, Theo van Doesburg and others. In its heyday the villa hosted a milieu of avant-garde designers and artists, and featured in Man Ray's film Les Mystères du Château de Dé. Today it is host to a contemporary arts centre and known for its International Festival of Fashion Photography and Accessories, a springboard for emerging talents, which will celebrate its 40th anniversary this October.
