EASY COLOUR GAME

When you look at it, this entire look is made up of no more than three colours. You don't need more than that. When in doubt, go with navy, white and grey – it's a foolproof combination that's almost impossible to screw up.

THE SHOE SPECTRUM

So, what about your feet? You've got options. Temper your sportiest sneakers with athletic-inspired dress pants, or let the two worlds merge right on your foot with a classic silhouette powered by a rubber sole.

ALL DAY EVERY DAY

When it comes to picking out your outfits, comfort should take precedence, but you shouldn't have to choose between looking good and feeling good. Your everyday pants can be your comfort zone too, if there's enough stretch in them, you'll have no problem commuting comfortably to work or running errands in style.

POST UP YOUR WORK DAY

About five years ago, ath-leisure swept through our wardrobe, promising us gym clothes designed so well that we could go to the bar in them. What we got was a barrage of hairy thighs and tight-encased bulges in our public spaces. Thankfully, we've arrived at a smarter integration, with the best of everything athleisure has to offer – the stretch, the ease of movement, the technical fabrics that keep us cool and dry – incorporated into the types of clothes (e.g. suits like this one) we'd wear anywhere. You never know when you might have to spring into action.

PERFECTLY MATCHED

Wearing a blazer with textured, tailored shorts can come off as a clashing combination. But the denim blazer bridges these two pieces and ties the whole look together. While it's casual and sporty, it's also versatile enough to wear to a lunch date, or even a night on the town.
