BEST WAVES

Mindbending lines make for a totally swell look

Inspired by auroras, Issey Miyake's A/W17 collection featured a series of colour-shifting numbers, including this wonderful undulating dress. Part of the 'Plasma x Baked Stretch' series, it is made from a glue-printed fabric, with pleats that dance open as the wearer moves. To complement this pulsating piece, we set it against a backdrop of concrete 'Weave' tiles by Stockholm's Note Design Studio. Inspired by the rhythmic contours of wind-sculpted sand dunes, the three different designs slot together to create waves across the wall. ✪

BEST SQUARING UP

How to work the right angles

Saint Laurent reinvented the power shoulder for A/W17, as seen in this plunging sequined mini-dress, complete with crystal-embellished epaulets. The square-shouldered details make clear creative director Anthony Vaccarello's obsession with all things 1980s, while pointing a way forward for the modern metropolitan wardrobe. Milan-based designer Gustavo Martini's 'The Grove' furniture collection also works the right angle. Crafted from grids of electro-welded steel and cork, the pieces represent the desire for both nature and rigour within well-functioning cities. ✪

Aún situados en extremos creativos opuestos, Nicolas Ghesquière y Virgil Abloh han sincronizado sus respectivas colecciones al frente de la mujer y el hombre Louis Vuitton, respectivamente, apelando a la misma fuerza motriz: la disrupción técnica y formal. En esta página, Raquel lleva abrigo de exterior, camisa y pantalón, todo de LOUIS VUITTON; pendientes de plata, de ARISTOCRAZY. A su lado, Chun, con conjunto estampado de americana, camisa y pantalón y anillos, todo de LOUIS VUITTON. En la página siguiente, Greta Ferrández luce traje de chaqueta y pantalón de pana de gallo, de PALOMO SPAIN; zapatos de Prada; pendientes de CORRES MADRID; y collar de GIVENCHY. La actriz protagoniza La hija de un ladrón.
