LOUD MOUTH

The runway's infatuation with femme fatales saw red wine lips replacing nudes at Dolce & Gabbana, Zac Posen and 3.1 Phillip Lim. Forget dewy skin, it's all about a grown-up, velvety finish. 'Reddish-brown lips look cool, but sophisticated,' says make-up artist Francelle Daly at 3.1 Phillip Lim. GET THE LOOK 'Use a red lip liner, then a brown one on top for richness,' says Mel Arter, who created the looks on this shoot. 'Blend with a brush, then tissue off to a matte effect.' Go for Mac Lip Pencils in Cork and Redd, £12 each, then define the eyes slightly with a brown shadow like Estée Lauder Pure Color Eye Shadow in Chocolate Bliss, £17, and keep brows natural

BEAUTY

MOODY BLUES

Sapphire eye make-up is having a beauty moment – as seen on the catwalks at Just Cavalli and Thakoon. Make-up artist Diane Kendal swept the models' eyes at Jason Wu with indigo in a geometric shape for a look that was 'nasty, yet elegant'. Kendal recommends that the rest of your make-up stays neutral, to keep it modern, not retro, and make the blue edges haphazard, so it's less harsh than years past. GET THE LOOK 'Use cream liner instead of pencil or powder and skip the mascara,' says Arter. Nars Cream Eyeshadow in Grand Bleu, £18, will stay put all day. Pair with a pink lipstick like Dior Rouge Dior in Darling, £26.
