DIOR MEN WINTER 2024-2025

PHOTOGRAPHY + FASHION
DAVEY SUTTON

At Dior Men Winter 2024-2025, the strings of Sergei Prokofiev's Dance of the Knights conjured the steps of trailblazing Russian ballet dancer Rudolf Nureyev. For Kim Jones, this reference point was personal: in 1966, the designer's late photo-journalist uncle Colin documented Nureyev for Time Life. It's here that Jones and Monsieur Dior's histories intertwine: Nureyev's famed dance partner

Margot Fonteyn was a Christian Dior muse. On a lifting, rotating runway, Jones reconceptualised Nureyev's wardrobe – on-stage and off – through embroidered cummerbunds, hand-woven kimonos, silk turbans and the subtle theatrics of couture: the hand-embellished boilersuit opposite is directly influenced by one of Fonteyn's evening gowns designed by Christian Dior in 1950.
